Method

1. Melt the butter in a pot, pour it into a bowl and let it cool.
2. Pound the sugar in a mortar until powdery and add it to the cooled butter.
3. Add the flour gradually and knead by hand until the dough no longer sticks to your hands.
   7 min
4. Pinch off small pieces of dough and roll them on a board into cylinders about 2 cm thick and 20 cm long. Cut them into 5 cm pieces, shape each into an S and arrange on a tray.
5. Bake in a preheated 160 °C oven until the tops turn lightly pink, without opening the oven door while baking. Serve once cooled.
